1975 wheat a record; crop worth $15 million

Last year's all-time record wheat crop in Randall County placed the county fourth in the state in wheat yields.

The crop, using Texas Department of Agriculture figures, accounted for a gross income to county farmers of about $15 million, well above the previous record year and yield of 1973.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White announced this week that Randall County farmers produced 4,439,000 bushels of wheat during 1975.

White said the farmers harvested about 160,000 acres with an average yield of 27.7 bushels per acre.

County Agent John Brazzil said Randall County farmers produced 4,244,000 bushels of wheat in 1973, the previous record year.

"These were two unusually good years," he said. "1973 had a higher per acre yield but not as many acres planted."

During 1973, farmers harvested 131,000 acres.

"Fourth in the state is really significant for us because we are not living in a total irrigated situation," Brazzil said. "Most of the counties which have been above us would have had significantly more irrigation than we have."

Randall County has about 35,000 to 40,000 irrigated acres of farmland.

Deaf Smith County ranked first in the state in wheat production with 10.2 million bushels, according to White.

Brazzil said Deaf Smith County is a traditional agricultural leader because of its tremendous number of acres — it's one of the largest counties in square miles in the state — and because of its irrigation.

Deaf Smith County farmers harvested 323,000 acres to achieve the first rank. Hansford County farmers ranked second in wheat production after harvesting 204,000 acres and Ochiltree County farmers ranked third harvesting 287,000 acres.

Brazzil said the 1975 Randall County crop should have accounted for a return of about $15 million. That compares to a $10 million figure estimate for the 1973 crop.

He said the crop last year brought between $3 and $4 per bushel.

Excellent moisture conditions during the fall of 1974 led to the record yield in 1975.

Texas farmers produced a record wheat crop during 1975 of 131.1 million bushels.

Randall County ranked sixth in the state in barley production with 75,000 bushels. Statewide barley production was 2.3 million bushels. Reeves County ranked first with 467,000 bushels.

While 1973 and 1975 were record wheat years, 1976 is expected to see little wheat production in the county.

Suffering of lack of significant moisture since August, the crop is already being abandoned in many non-irrigated parts of the county.

Gonorrhea heads list of diseases in county

Gonorrhea was Randall County's number one communicable disease in 1975, according to figures released this week by regional health officials.

David Brown, health program specialist with Public Health Region I of the Texas Department of Health Resources in Canyon, said the county had 24 cases of gonorrhea reported during the year to outstrip by far other leading communicable diseases.

The county figures are comparable to Panhandle-wide figures included in Brown's year-end wrap-up.

The figures show that gonorrhea headed the Panhandle list of communicable diseases with 1,287 cases reported during 1975. Only 6 of the Panhandle's 25 counties had no report of gonorrhea.

Infectious hepatitis ranked second in the communicable disease morbidity figures in the county with 8 cases reported. One case of unspecified hepatitis and one case of tuberculosis were also

City wants $100,000 from HUD even though deadline missed

By LAURIE TELFAIR

City officials are applying for approximately $100,000 under the Community Development Act grant program, despite having missed the deadline for submitting a preapplication.

Street paving and water and sewer extensions in the western part of Canyon are to be proposed, said city manager Glen Metcalf. The application was expected to be completed late Tuesday afternoon or early Wednesday and sent to Panhandle Regional Planning Commission, administrative assistant Tom Plumlee said late Tuesday. He said the amount asked would probably be about $100,000.

City officials discovered last week that they had missed the deadline for filing a pre-application.

At the commissioners' meeting Monday night, Mayor Manly Bryan said he had been on the phone all that day "trying to find out who's responsible."

"PRPC said that HUD should have notified us and HUD said that PRPC did last year," said Bryan. "Nobody knows what's going on in this program. You can't get any rhyme or reason until after the deadline.

Bryan said he had talked to representatives of both Sen. John Tower and Rep. Jack Hightower on Monday to see if the city could still apply for the grant program for next year even though the first deadline had passed.

Tuesday, Plumlee said a pre-application form and two Federal Registers with guidelines for the Community Development Act were found at PRPC. Metcalf drove to Amarillo to get the form and information that morning and the city staff began preparing the application Tuesday afternoon.

Plumlee said that last year, a pre-application was not necessary to receive funding.

"Apparently, the guidelines have been changed this year and an application is necessary."

Metcalf said they would concentrate on projects in the western part of Canyon.

"The requirements are very vague," he explained, "as we understand it, west Canyon is the only eligible area that meets the requirements. The grant is designed for low income type areas."

Under the HUD program, $22,000 was received this week for paving three blocks along 6th Avenue, Bryan announced at the commissioners' meeting.

In other business Monday night, the commissioners called for public hearings for April 19 on zoning requests for Hunsley Hills unit two, and C.N. Crosby property in the Victoria addition.

They also called a public hearing on a rezoning request by Sunlight Investment Corporation for a lot on 5th Avenue. The request to change the lot to retail had been disapproved by the planning and zoning board as spot zoning.

Commissioners routinely approved a record $1.2 million city budget and set the tax rate at $1.82 based on 40 per cent

Sparse crowd attends meeting

Old routine returns for school board

It was business as usual for the first time since early last fall as Canyon school board members spent about an hour Tuesday night going over basically routine agenda items.

Their spacious meeting room, crowded with interested citizens during virtually every meeting since August 1975, held only the usual handful Tuesday night—four school principals, four news media representatives, two students and a school board candidate.

Not since the board formed a two citizens study committees to consider alternatives for school overcrowding and financing last August had the board spent such a short time before such a small crowd on school business.

Even so, board members skirted for the second straight meeting since a Feb. 17, $5.5 million bond issue was defeated by district voters any discussion of what route they might take toward construction of new school facilities.

The facilities themselves were discussed at length during the session as board members discussed possible floor plans and building concepts for an elementary school.

"Of all the needs we have, the elementary school is the most pressing need," Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the board. "Whenever we can pass a bond issue, if the plans are basically complete this will speed up the process as much as three months."

He asked that the board continue discussions of how the elementary school should be designed and what it should include but stressed "this is not an effort to get any board member to do anything against his own wishes—it's just an effort to expedite the plans."

Richard Pruett and Board President Tom Keeling expressed a desire to have small windows in each classroom in the building even though Principals Dave Corley, John Sommer and Bob Parks said they have had no trouble with windowless classrooms in their buildings.

Ed Wieck and Dr. Dudley Moore, who before the Feb. 17 bond issue election had inspected two relatively new schools in Hereford, urged other board members to inspect the West Central Elementary School there.

"I would like to see the plans for that building," Moore said. "I really liked that."

Board members agreed to travel to Hereford April 1 to inspect the elementary school.

In other action, the board heard a letter from Gulf Republic Service Corporation in which Vice President Wilton White withdraws Gulf's fall offer of an elementary school site to the district.

In the letter White says the land was originally offered the district in the hopes the offer would encourage passage of the Dec. 7 bond issue election. But, in light of the two bond issue defeats and other recent developments in the district, Gulf withdraws the offer.

"If you're wondering why, we

City postpones action on controversial plat

Further discussion of Canyon North, a country-type subdivision planned to center around equestrian interests, was postponed by city commissioners Monday night until "legal, procedural and engineering problems are resolved."

Commissioner J. Pat Stephens made the motion after commissioners were unable to untangle several apparently conflicting regulations governing whether the subdivision plat should first be acted upon by the city or the county governments.

Canyon North lies outside the city limits but within the extra-territorial jurisdiction of the city.

Developer A.W. Lair had sought to present the final plat for unit one of the subdivision and a preliminary plat for the remaining area. Eventually, Canyon North is planned to include some 100 lots containing three or more acres each.

The plat was reviewed recently by the city planning and zoning board, which recommended that the city approve the project subject to the roads conforming with city engineering standards. Several variances from city subdivision regulations were recommended.

These include reducing street width to 60 ft right-of-ways with 24-foot pavements; allowing curb and gutters to be omitted; requiring property buyers to enter into restrictions with Lair and stipulating that city water and sewer were not to be provided.

Clarence Thompson, chairman of the planning and zoning board, presented the board recommendations to the commission.

In granting the variances, Thompson said, the board "was showing no disrespect or disregard for the city manager, the city engineer or the city attorney."

"We think that sections 6 and 12 grant us the right to modify the ordinance where we think it is justified," he went on.

The purpose of allowing variances is to allow flexibility and diversification of developments, Thompson said.

"We feel that Canyon North is a unique development," Thompson said. "The regulations would not be in keeping with the lifestyle of the development."

Lair told the commissioners that Canyon North was being developed "for the enjoyment of the American Quarter Horse."

The Quarter Horse business is growing faster than any other recreation, Lair said, and most of his inquiries are from people who want to keep a horse on their property and have a nice home.

The subdivision restrictions will allow a two-horse stable that is constructed in keeping with the home architecture. Canyon North is being patterned after a similar community in Scottsdale, Ariz., Lair said.

Commissioners most closely questioned the provisions for each lot to contain its own water and sewer system.

Lair said that soil tests showed the primarily caliche area to be excellent for septic tank systems. Water is now readily available, he said.

Thompson said that the planning and zoning board did not envision the area to be annexed.

Commissioner H.R. Fulton asked Thompson, "What time did you spend on discussing water? Maybe in a long time, but maybe only a short time before those homes that are built, even if they drill a well, would run out of water. What would we do then?"

Lair replied that the wells drilled there have water of

Profs. bitterly eye anti-war years as FBI interest revealed

It is with bitterness that Dr. Pete Petersen and Dr. Darrell Munsell look back on an era in America during which, previously secret records show, campus dissidents were subjected to unprecedented surveillance.

For less than half a decade, Petersen and Munsell, two West Texas State University professors who took active roles in opposing American involvement in Vietman, have watched less as participants and more as spectators of drama of Vietman's downfall and the withdrawal of American support both for that country and for this country's efforts there.

But, it is to the late 1960s and early 1970s that their minds turn as congressional committees probe deeper into the dealings of domestic agencies involved in spying, making public revelation after revelation concerning that era of campus and national turmoil.

They, of all people, should not be, and are not, shocked or even mildly surprised as the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence unravels the mysteries of FBI and CIA domestic intrigue.

The most recent revelation, unveiled last week by the Senate committee in a 1,000-page report on hearings conducted last fall, is that during the '60s and '70s, J. Edgar Hoover repeatedly urged agents of the FBI to exert themselves more forcefully against campus and other radical groups and the agents in reaction intensified their efforts at campus surveillance

The Chronicle of Higher Education for March 15 outlines the substance of the Senate committee's report, presenting a picture of an FBI counter-intelligence program aimed not only at watching campus dissidents but taking active roles in thwarting dissenting efforts on college campuses.

Petersen and Munsell tell similar stories of a half-decade of fear, a five-year span during which they felt themselves watched, photographed, spied upon by students.

They tell of finding their offices broken into, their files rifled, and of their suspicions that their telephones were tapped.

West Texas State University officials say now that FBI agents showed an unprecedented concern with university students and professors during the late part of the last decade and early part of the present. But they say the university itself had no role in either helping or thwarting surveillance efforts.

In fact, when compared to other universities throughout the nation, the anti-Vietnam war sentiment ran only at a trickle through the student body at West Texas State during the years beginning in about 1966 and ending in about 1972.

A Students for Democratic Society (SDS) chapter formed on campus claimed a membership of seven students.

Anti-war moratorium rallies garnered few supporters.

News files from the era indicate more concern was shown for the efforts of some black students during the late '60s to remove from the campus what had been a traditional Old South Day celebration by Kappa Alpha Order.

Basketball games and parades were disrupted in connection with demands of black students. The fire-bombing of a downtown Canyon building, apparently mistaken to be the Kappa Alpha Lodge, was also attributed at least privately to the black student controversy.

Petersen and Munsell gave faculty support to student anti-war groups which, at that time, were not allowed official campus organization recognition or status.

In that role, they feel, they were singled out for the kind of FBI or police surveillance approach described in part in the Senate committee's hearings report.

Petersen recalls, for example, having his picture taken innumerable times during public meetings.

On one night, Petersen said, at an anti-war meeting or some other activity in the student

WTSU named as bicentennial university for activities

To recognize its participation in the celebrations, West Texas State University has been named an "American Bicentennial University" by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration.

"All of us are deeply honored by the designation of West Texas State University as an official bicentennial university," said Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins, WTSU president. "Members of the faculty and staff have done an excellent job of planning events commemorating the bicentennial, and I feel it is a great tribute to them that their activities have been recognized in such an outstanding fashion."

West Texas State's bicentennial activities stretch over several years. A featured part of the events is a special course, "Bicentennial Tour of Historical Sites," which will take its participants on a two-week tour of the eastern United States. Scheduled for the second summer term, the tour, offered for course credit, will travel to such historic towns as Williamsburg, Yorktown, Washington, D.C., Gettysburg, Philadelphia and Valley Forge.

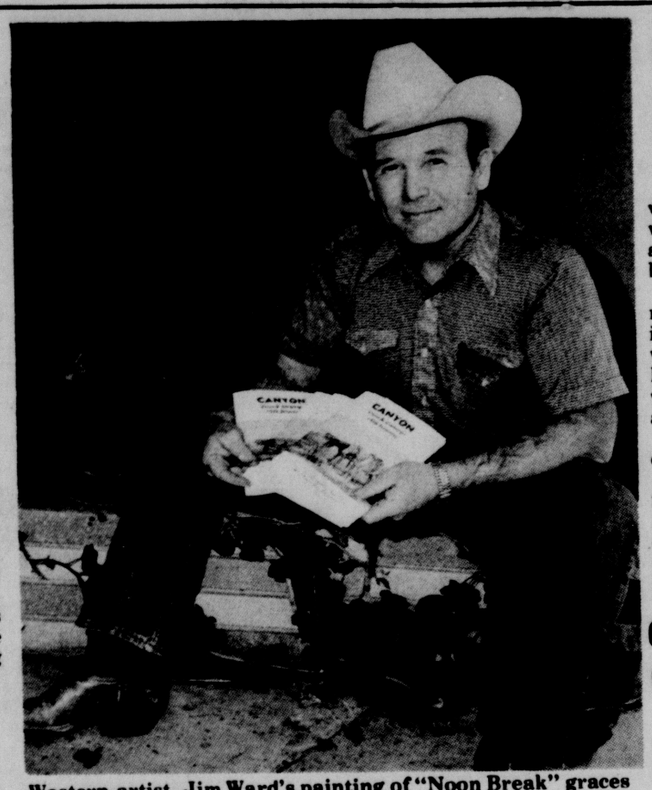

Other special classes already being taught at WT are the "Bicentennial Lecture Series," which is a series of talks by faculty members on the American character and values, and the "American Revolution Bicentennial: English and American Perspectives." The History Department is also involved in an Oral History Porject, as they interview many of the early residents and leading citizens of the Panhandle.

Special exhibits have been numerous on campus, including many at the WT Cornette Library and at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. The museum recently moved the T-Anchor ranch house to the WT campus, and restored it as it was in its height as one of the most famous ranches in the Panhandle.

Campus beautification has been emphasized by faculty and staff wives, who have sponsored projects such as the Bicentennial Ball to raise the money necessary to plant an evergreen garden in memory of the Panhandle's pioneers, and shrubs and trees.

The Music Department is producing the popular musical "1776" in early April.

In recognition of its designation, West Texas State will receive a bicentennial flag and a certificate.

Western artist, Jim Ward's painting of "Noon Break" graces the cover page of the 1976 Canyon phone directory. The original painting is in a private collection owned by Ron McVean of Amarillo and is displayed at McDonald's Restaurant in Canyon. A ten year resident of Canyon, Ward is current president of the Texas Cowboy Artists Association, serves as a Sunday School teacher for First Baptist Church of Canyon, and currently serves as president for Canyon Eagle Booster Club.

Golf goods worth $ 2,000 stolen at Hunsley pro shop

The theft of almost $2,000 worth of golf equipment last week from the Hunsley Hills pro shop is still under investigation by Canyon police.

Gary Hammer, golf pro, reported sports equipment, clothing and a portable television set were stolen during the night of March 19. The golf equipment was valued at $1,758 and the TV at $290.

Police found no sign of forced entry into the building.

Also under investigation was a fire Sunday at 1024 Shelly Drive. A large stack of lumber on a construction site was doused with gasoline and set afire, according to police. The blaze was discovered about 7:30 p.m.

An engraved, custom-made pool cue was stolen from a car parked near the university during the spring break. David Ferguson told police the cue was taken sometime between March 16-19. The cue was valued at $100.

Carson John Sefcik of Tulia pleaded guilty this week to possession of less than two ounces of marijuana and was fined $250 and court costs. He was sentenced to 30 days in jail and the sentence was probated for six months.

Charges of carrying a deadly weapon filed against Larry Dean Black of Corpus Christi were dropped. Black had been arrested with Sefcik.

A Lubbock woman involved in a wreck here Saturday was turned over to Amarillo police on a charge of possession of stolen property.

Patricia Ann Lucero of Lubbock was injured Saturday morning when the car in which she was riding went off U.S. 87 just north of Spur 48 and struck several road signs. She was taken to Palo Duro Hospital and was then held for Amarillo police. Clothing and jewelry suspected of being stolen were found in the wrecked car.

The driver, Flores Santiago Diaz, also of Lubbock, was also taken to Palo Duro Hospital.

A Canyon man waived arraignment Monday on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

David Lee Levens of Canyon Creek Apartments No. 88 was charged with DWI following his arrest last Thursday. A trial date has not been set.

Small children are suspected of breaking the headlights and tail lights from three trucks parked during the weekend at Crow-Gulde Inc. parking lot.

Police are investigating the mischief and say the lights were apparently broken with a golf club or hammer. Footprints of small children were found in the area, according to police. About $50 in damage was done.

Resolution urges allocation of highway repair funds

A resolution passed by Randall County commissioners Monday calls on state government officials to take action in 1977 to allocate adequate funding for state highway construction and maintenance.

The resolution is apparently in response to recent publicity generated by the Texas Department of Highways and Transportation concerning the lack of state and federal funding support for new construction and maintenance of state highways.

The resolution notes that the state department currently has a backlog of $11 billion worth of construction projects and state and federal funding has decreased to a drastic level.

It calls on state officials to restore transportation systems in the state to a high priority.

A similar resolution was passed last week by the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association meeting in San Angelo.

County commissioners were concerned not just with state highways, but also county roads during their regular Monday meeting.

They agreed to pay one-half the price for cutting a dirt road in a subdivision area for developer P.D. Wheeler. Wheeler agreed to pay the other half or about $1,250 for the road. The one-mile road will stretch from Georgia to Washington south of McCormick Road.

To preclude such deals in the future, Commissioner Paul Lindsey introduced a motion which was unanimously accepted that the county formulate a set policy on construction of roads for such developers.

Wheeler had approached commissioners about cutting the road because he said the county had cut a road just north of the development without requiring compensation.

Commissioners postponed action on purchase or lease of a vehicle for use by a new criminal investigator to work out of the district attorney's office.

Dist. Atty. Randall Sherrod reported that grant funds for the criminal investigator are to be made available on May 1.

Action was also tabled on purchase of an electric memory typewriter for use in the district attorney's office. The machine is to be purchased through a state and federal grant.

Sherrod said bids would have to be taken on the machine but specifications would be written so IBM would be sole bidder. He indicated the national firm is the only firm making the kind of machine the office wants.

Commissioners agreed to enter into contract with the Amarillo Hospital District with the district to provide examinations for rape victims at the Amarillo Emergency Receiving Center.

Sherrod said examinations, which required by his office, would cost the county about $65 each.

Commissioners extended for another year a $500 funding for the Palo Duro Soil and Water Conservation District.

And, they again discussed at length a new personal policy for county employees, but took no action pending consideration of a formal typed copy to be prepared for their first meeting in April.

Mayor says

City salaries available for inspection by public

Salaries of city employees were never reviewed in public, Mayor Manly Bryan said Monday night, but are available for inspection at city hall.

The mayor was responding to a television reporter's questions during the public hearing on the 1976-77 budget, held Monday night.

Asked by Channel 7 reporter Vivian Madewell when the salaries were reviewed, Bryan said "We don't review by personalities. We did that in executive session."

Mrs. Madewell pointed out that county employees salaries are discussed during public meetings. "When the county sets its budget," she said, "the people know what every individual county employee makes."

"That information is available," answered Bryan. "The salaries are filed by individual by name in city hall."

Tuesday, salary schedules and a list of city positions with present salaries and raises approved for the new budget were compiled by administrative assistant Tom Plumlee.

Names of employees holding the positions were not listed but were made available. Plumlee said he disagreed with attaching names to the salary list because raises were considered by position, not by personalities of the persons holding the job.

"We don't deal in personalities," he said.

The salary list includes:

Administrative assistant Tom Plumlee, presently making $815 a month, will be raised April 1 to $899. An additional raise on the anniversary date of his employment will increase his monthly salary to $921.

Heavy equipment operator Jerry Renner, now making $638, will make $654 on April 1 and $687 on anniversary date.

Heavy equipment operator J.C. Woods, now making $638, will make $654 on April 1 and $687 on anniversary date.

Heavy equipment operator Aaron Cummins, now making $654, will make $670 on April 1 and $704 on anniversary date.

Maintenance supervisor Harley Wayne Wesley, now making $721, will make $739 on April 1 and $776 on anniversary date.

Street and sanitation superintendent Archie Dean Davis, now making, $877, will make $899 on April 1 and $944 on anniversary date.

Sanitation worker I Tom Green, now making $538, will make $565 on April 1 and $593 on anniversary date.

Sanitation worker I Ernest Wilson, now making $422, will make $454 on April 1 and $476 on anniversary date.

Sanitation worker I Richard Gray, now making $402, will make $443 on April 1 and $465 on anniversary date.

Sanitation worker II Lindell King, now making $593, will make $623 on April 1 and $654 on anniversary date.

Sanitation Worker Neil James, now making $465, will make $500 on April 1 and $525 on anniversary date.

Code enforcement officer Jerry Lehnick, now making $916, will make $944 on April 1 and $991 on anniversary date.

Clerk I Mist Wilson, now making $383, will make $422 on April 1 and $443 on anniversary date.

Clerk I Charlotte Douglas, now making $369, will make $402 on April 1 and $422 on anniversary date.

Clerk I Ethel Beagle, now making $369, will make $402 on April 1 and $422 on anniversary date.

Deputy director of finance Marguerite Strain, now making $921, will make $944 on April 1 and $991 on anniversary date.

Secretary to the city manager Barbara Russell, now making $538, will make $565 on April 1 and $593 on anniversary date.

Water superintendent Robert Rogers, now making $921, will make $944 on April 1 and $967 on anniversary date.

Maintenance supervisor Charles Newton, now making $721, will make $757 on April 1 and $795 on anniversary date.

Maintenance worker Robert Irving, now making $443, will make $465 on April 1 and $488 on anniversary date.

Maintenance worker Lynn Cook, now making $422, will make $465 on April 1 and $488 on anniversary date.

Plant operator Charles Wilson, now making $465, will make $512 on April 1 and $538 on anniversary date.

Plant operator Woody Morris, now making $465, will make $512 on April 1 and $538 on anniversary date.

Heavy equipment operator Charles Murphy, now making $488, will make $538 on April 1 and $565 on anniversary date.

Police Chief Al Stewart, now making $1,066, will make $1,092 on April 1 and $1,147 on anniversary date.

Police lieutenant Tom Rolen, now making $899, will make $921 on April 1 and $967 on anniversary date.

Police sergeant Jack McGee, now making $739, will make $757 on April 1 and $795 on anniversary date.

Police sergeant Warner Tally, now making $721, will make $739 on April 1 and $776 on anniversary date.

Police officer II Mike Ingle, now making $704, will make $721 on April 1 and $757 on anniversary date.

Police officer I James Farren, now making $593, will make $638 on April 1 and $670 on anniversary date.

Police officer I Ron McMullen, now making $593, will make $638 on April 1 and $670 on anniversary date.

Police officer I Joe Fiola, now making $654, will make $687 on April 1 and $721 on anniversary date.

Police officer I Glen Stockner, now making $565, will make $593 on April 1 and $623 on anniversary date.

Police officer I James Relaford, now making $565, will make $593 on April 1 and $623 on anniversary date.

Police clerk III Jessie Booth, now making $538, will make $551 on April 1 and $579 on anniversary date.

Clerk I Dana Greer, now making $383, will make $422 on April 1 and $443 on anniversary date.

Custodian Mariano Romero, now making $450, will make $454 on April 1 and $476 on anniversary date.

Deputy fire chief Joe Rice, now making $921, will make $944 on April 1 and $991 on anniversary date.

Fire engineer Tommy Jo Platt, now making $757, will make $776 on April 1 and $815 on anniversary date.

City manager Glen Metcalf's salary is not included in the city pay plan but is set, instead, by the commissioners.

Raises are not necessarily granted by commissioners at the beginning of the fiscal year, and, Metcalf said, to his knowledge, no raise for him has been approved.

Metcalf now makes $1,375 a month.

City Commissioners H.R. Fulton, Jim Christopher, Willis Harrison and Mayor Manly Bryan each receive $25 a month for serving on the governing body. Commissioner J. Pat Stephens, who is a professor at West Texas State University, is prohibited by state law from receiving another governmental salary and so is not paid by the city.

Olympics for CHS sports fete

"Canyon Olympics" was selected as the theme for the upcoming All Sports Athletic Banquet to honor the athletes of Canyon High School on Thursday evening, April 8.

Canyon Eagle Booster Club members met Monday evening at the First National Bank's community room to finalize plans for the annual all-sports athletic event.

The banquet was set for April 8 at 7 p.m. in the Canyon Junior High School cafetorium and will feature barbecue to be catered by Sutphen's of Amarillo.

Tickets will be sold at $3.50 per plate with all high school athletes to be special guests for the evening. Ticket sales will be conducted soon by the CHS athletes and Booster Club members.

Jim Ward, Booster Club president, reports that a master of ceremonies for the banquet has been selected pending agreement by the individual.

Linda Brazille was designated to arrange for ticket printing and Athletic Director Dean Wright will handle distribution of tickets to athletes for sale.

Banquet decorations will be handled by a committee with Vi Taylor as chairman. The decoration committee will set up during the afternoon, April 8, and all athletes' parents are asked to help. Ruby Abbott will head the food committee.

A pre-banquet telephone committee will convene at Bob Lindsey's Land and Cattle Company, 1400 4th Avenue, on April 5 to promote the banquet. All parents of CHS athletes are encouraged to join the effort.

TEAMWORK — Pitcher Terry Mick fields a bunt, backed up by catcher Greg Taylor and first baseman Hoss Ratliff when CHS met Amarillo High on Monday.

Sandies down CHS nine in 11-inning marathon

Three runs by the Amarillo High Sandies in the 11th inning downed a tenacious CHS baseball team Monday 7-4 after the two teams had battled at a 4-4 tie since the sixth inning.

Terry Mick went the entire game for Canyon on the mound, striking out 11 batters.

Amarillo took an early lead, scoring once in the first inning and then turning two walks and a long hit to right field into three runs in the third inning.

Canyon went scoreless until the fourth inning when Ron Hickman singled and was driven in by a single by Hoss Ratliff.

In the fifth, a home run by Jay Huey brought home Hickman as well and CHS tied the game in the sixth when Ricky Cooper, on base with a single, scored on a single by Terry Martin.

Canyon was downed decisively Tuesday by Tascosa 15-5.

Ron Hickman gave up ten hits and the CHS team committed five errors for the loss.

Canyon's runs came in the first inning, when Joe Luquette hit a double and again in the second when Luquette added two runs by driving in Jonathan Hull with a triple and then stealing home.

In the sixth, Ricky Cooper and Randy Langen scored on a triple by Hull.

The games brought the Canyon record to 6-6 for the season. District play will not begin until mid-April.

Reception slated

First United Methodist Church of Canyon will be the site of a retirement reception honoring Ada V. Clark Sunday afternoon.

The reception from 3 p.m. until 4:40 will be held in the church parlor. All friends and relatives are invited for the fete.

Pond's resolutions

Oppose federal controls

Resolutions authored by Randall County Judge Woody Pond were adopted late last week by the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association opposing federal land use controls and weather modification.

Pond returned over the weekend from the three-day association convention in San Angelo and said the association membership voted to adopt the two resolutions, previously adopted by Randall County commissioners.

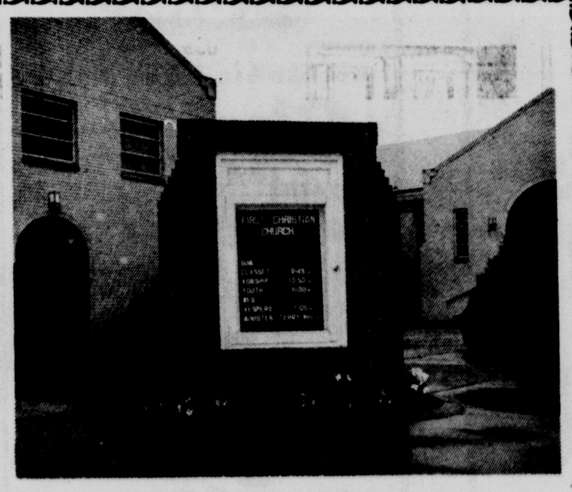

Two weeks ago, commissioners adopted a resolution presented by Commissioner Jim Fletcher opposing any efforts by any branch of the federal government at land use control.

Commissioners had also early this spring adopted a resolution opposing weather modification activities over the county.

Pond said the resolution adopted by the regional association last week opposed weather modification activities and asks that residents of a county in which such activities are proposed be allowed to vote on the issue.

Copies of these resolutions and others on a variety of other subjects are to be sent to Gov. Dolph Briscoe and Texas legislators.

Pond was accompanied to the convention by Commissioners Fletcher and Dee Griffin.

We Offer the Canyon Community the Enrichment of our Classes.

Attempting to hold true to the teachings of Jesus and the practices of the New Testament Churches, the Christian Church strives for a Christian faith which is both socially relevant to the era in which we live and intellectually sound. Throughout the year, therefore, we offer Bible classes, mission studies, and many special interest group discussions.

We believe that each person is sacred in God's eyes, and that each has a personal responsibility in His work. Each must serve and teach as there is opportunity, and therefore each should maintain as high a standard as possible of education, conduct, and worship.

No attempt is made to impose a set of formulated doctrines or traditional interpretations of religious thought upon anyone. Each is accorded the freedom of private interpretation and the right to individual judgment. We welcome you and your opinions into our discussions.

Babe Ruth tryouts are on April 3

Try-outs for six Babe Ruth League baseball teams will be held at 9 a.m. April 3 at the Babe Ruth diamond near Conner Park, according to Dr. Duane Guy, league president.

Guy said boys born on or after Aug. 1, 1963 or before Aug. 1, 1961 are eligible for the try-outs since the league is open to boys aged 13-15.

The Babe Ruth season will open on April 30 with a doubleheader and games will be held on Fridays and Saturdays until school is out when games will be scheduled four times each week.

Guy said he expects between 50 and 60 boys to try-out for team slots.

A new team has been added to the league this year and will be made up of boys from the Gene Howe school area. Kile Farmer will coach the team.

Other teams and their coaches are the White Sox, Randy Whitson; Giants, Raby Ratliff; Pirates, Mel Shriver; Cardinals, Sturdy Wanamaker; and Happy's team, Vincent Venhaus.

Other league officers are Lindell Moore, vice president, and Jimmy Green, secretary-treasurer.

Organizational meet is Sunday

An organizational meeting for university students and city residents interested in forming a citizens band radio club will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

The meeting will be held in the Room 126 of the Activity Center on the campus of West Texas State University according to Janet Dickson.

Higginbotham gets master's

The master degree will be conferred tonight on Bud Higginbotham by a Shrine degree team from Amarillo at Canyon City Lodge #730 AF&AM.

Frank Morgan will also be presented a 50-year pin during the ceremonies, which are to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Happy News

School board has write-in candidate

By MARY NEAL HENRY

MRS. JIM (GAY) Fellers has announced that she will be a write-in candidate for the Happy School Board during the coming election. She has been urged to run for the school board by many different people in the school district and feels that she can discharge the duties most effectively. Good luck, Gay!

Gay is the wife of Jim Fellers and mother of three children, Rhonda, 21 years old; Mike, 17 years old; and Laura, 14 years old. Both Mike and Laura are students of Happy High School. Rhonda is a junior at the University of Austin and is an 'A' and 'B' student there.

Jim and Gay own their home in the east part of Happy and are rebuilding and remodeling it themselves because of a fire last year.

FIRST STATE BANK won the women's division of the Happy Volunteer Firemen's Volleyball Tournament last weekend. Playing for the team were Judy Shipman, Dottie Foster, Gayle Null, Dixie Smith, Sharon McCarley, Carol Foster, Janie Mann and Susan Rahlfs.

To take first place trophy they beat Hardaway Butane and they won second place. This team was Louese White, Sheri Henry, Kathy Whitman, Alice Middleton, Jeanne Johnson, Willa Jane McManigal, Susan Moudy and Jill White.

Sunnyhill Home Demonstration Club won third place trophy AND Sportsmanship trophy. Barbara Danner, Gwynn Tucek, Donna Dean, Belinda Goode, Jorja Smith, Phyllis Bryan, Mary Wilhelm, and Jackie Lewis played for Sunnyhill.

Lone Star Feeders took consolation. They were Judy Thompson, Terri Pearson, Betty Stockett, Nell Sims, Glinda Dempsey, Linda Swanson and Joan Frost.

Ervin's Barber Shop, Heco and Wallace Motor also sponsored teams in the tournament.

Wayside Grain won the men's division of the Volleyball Tournament. J.E. Vick, Bill Pearson, James Stockett, C.R. Wesley, Mark Moudy, Ronnie Middleton, and Larry Simons played for Wayside.

Wallace Motor took second place but gave Wayside Grain a good battle. Elburn Wallace, Pat Sims, Reggie Johnson, Randy Perez, Johnny Payne, and Charles Morrison played for Wallace Motor.

Harman-Toles, George Tirey, Dick Railsback, Jerral Mayes, Emil Shipman, Ronnie Jackson, Gary and Terry Hutto, won third place trophy by defeating Taylor-Evans.

Texas Tops, Dickie Clark, Bill Whitlow, Cleve Vessels, Bob Hargrave, Weldon Tucek, Marvin Flowers, and Jim McManigal, took the consolation trophy by defeating Arney.

Happy Jaycees sponsored two teams in the tournament and the Jaycees #2 team took the sportsmanship trophy. (They didn't expect one). Gene Shipman, Randy Johnson, Vincent Venhaus and Lloyd Rahlfs were the other team members.

Ervin Wilson, chairman of this year's tournament, was presented a plaque of appreciation. Ervin is moving from Happy in the near future to Goldthwaite where he and his brother have purchased a plumbing company. Over 150 friends honored Ervin and Hope recently at an open house and they were presented a large brandy snifter containing money.

George White was presented a plaque for 30 years of service.

Mike Wilson, young son of Ervin Wilson, and mascot of the fire department, was also presented a plaque.

About 30 door prizes were drawn for and presented each evening, but five large prizes were presented on Saturday evening.

Bill Johnson won two, the C.B. radio and the outdoor grill. Arch Johnson won the half beef.

Roman Weavers won the gas grill. Mary Womack won the outdoor yard light. All those tickets and I never won a thing!

THE HAPPY VOLUNTEER Fire Department is sponsoring another Volleyball Tournament this week-end . . . a couple's tournament. Sixteen teams are entered. It should be very humorous! All home folks. Admission is only 50 cents and 25 cents. They will probably have another concession. No one mentioned the homemade ice cream. That they sold last Saturday night was delicious.

HAPPY COWBELLES MET on Thursday of last week in the Happy Lion's Den for business at 9:30 a.m. President LaNelle Todd called the meeting to order.

Business included a donation to the Toby and T-Bone advertisement for this area, Beef Gift Certificates to be presented to the Happy Volunteer Firemen for their nightly drawing, election of delegates to the state convention, donation of a door prize to the Mid-Year Meeting from Happy CowBelles, the booth for the Bicentennial day in Canyon, and the poster contest being conducted in the Happy Grade School for Agriculture Day, March 22nd. A thank you was read from Patsy Miller for our donation of two Beef Gift Certificates donated to the drawings at the booth at the Fort Worth Livestock Show.

Prizes for the poster contest being conducted at Happy Grade School are a dinner steak at Al's for first prize, chicken fried steak for second prize, and a basket burger for third prize.

Present for the meeting were Mesdames Lonnie Todd, Roy Thompson, Carl Sims, Bill Johnson, Merle McFarland, Simon Elliott, Everette Culp, Henry Hamblen, Earl Reynolds, Bob Hargrave, George Rahlfs, Bill Eubanks, Tom Henry, Tom Wilhelm, Vernon Wilhelm, Don Goode, Melton McGehee, George Edmonds, John Butler and C.D. Taylor.

The Happy CowBelles were also hostesses to the Senior Citizens luncheon at noon the same day.

Leslie Talbert, Lena Dietz and Kate Hudson were honored for having March birthdays. Leola Sexton was a special guest of her mother and also had a March birthday. Ollie Nichols had baked a German Chocolate birthday cake and we all sang happy birthday to the honorees.

A covered dish luncheon was served. Lone Star Feeders of Happy provided a huge roast beef for the main course.

Others present were Lois Moreman, Bee Wilcox, America Walton, Lou Ella Hollabough, Flora Backus, Minnie Via, Livia Davis, Ollie Nichols, Bertie Culp, Viola Buchanan, Annie Strem, Edna Walker, Lena Wood, Lelia Castleberry, Corrie Bell, Grace Counterman, Bonnie Sluder, Doris Irlbeck, G.A. Dietz, Alti and Vera White, Eula and T.J. Bonds, Frances and George Blake, and Maureen Allison.

After the luncheon, Happy CowBelles presented a program explaining the beef industry and beef in the Senior Citizen's diet. Willie Butler was chairman of that program.

FREDDIE AND DONNA Briscoe have a baby boy, Frank Erwin, born March 15 in Lawton, Okla.

The baby arrived 2 months prematurely and weighed 3 lbs. 1 oz. He was flown to Oklahoma City to stay until his weight reaches 4 pounds.

The father, Freddie, is stationed at Fort Sill. Both mother and son are doing fine at last report.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Briscoe and Mr. and Mrs. James Cox of Tulia.

NEAL ODOM, PETE Odom, Guy Walt Via, Eddie Joe Pearson, Ronnie McDonald, Tim Parker, Angelique Henry and myself, Lee Burnett and Charlotte and Joe Edd Burnett were present in Tulia last week for the first 4-H Horse Club meeting. Dates for the County Horse Show were set for May 22 and June 19. Tri-County Horse Camp is June 25 and 26.

The decision was made not to participate in the High Plains Rodeo Association this year.

THE DEDICATION OF a historical marker of the First United Methodist Church will be April 11 immediately after church. A covered dish dinner will be held in the church basement and everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Vilo Danner and Mrs. Maurine Allison and their families and mother, Mrs. Sibyl Prewitt, are doing this in honor of their father, Ira Prewitt. Two years were necessary to gain sufficient information for the state for approval of this historical marker. Four generations of these families will be present for the occasion.

The Methodist Church was organized in 1905 on the old Prewitt place three miles north and one east of Happy's northeast corner of the township. Tom Gilliland owned the property at that time.

J.F. White, Bill White's father, was the carpenter who built the church.

In 1910 the church was moved to town. The present building was erected after the fire of 1933.

Remember to mark your calendar on April 11, the day that the First United Methodist Church of Happy will be commemorated with a historical marker.

Have a good day!

Mary Neal

P.S. Sunday, March 28 is John Steele's birthday. Friends who want to remember him, his address is 7022 North 48 Avenue, Glendale, Ariz. 85301.

Randall County Home Demonstration Clubs will be represented by three voting delegates at the District Texas Home Demonstration Association's meeting today in Perryton. Delegates include from left, Delores Wilhelm of Jowell HD Club, Gwynn Tucek of Sunnyhill HD Club and Ernestine Howard of Highland HD Club.

If elected, I —

Will consider the interests of all the students in our district. I am aware of the overcrowded conditions, and frustrations of our teachers and school administrators. Will work to supply adequate space in schools, but within a budget and indebtedness that will also protect the taxpayers.

Will encourage the Canyon Independent School District Board to continue to work with the Amarillo School Board on a plan for orderly de-annexation of lands which would prove an added burden to taxpayers, teachers and students.

Will listen, have an open mind, do my homework, be sure of the facts, and then attempt to make an intelligent decision which will be for the good of our entire district.

Will have the courage of my convictions, and will express my opinion.

Will work to restore trust and confidence between the School Board and the people of the district.

Springtime storm shelter available

BY DORIS MCKEE

SPRING OFFICALLY ROLLED in Saturday, March 20th, and we have had some lovely days since then and hope they keep up for a while.

Of course, we should keep in mind that tornado season usually comes right along with spring. It will be wise to listen to the weather daily and also to keep our eyes trained to watch the weather changes.

Be sure that you plan what you and your family will do if the weather turns bad, and remember there is a shelter under the recreation room.

WE HAVE SEVERAL new park tenants and would like to say welcome to each and everyone of them:

Ken and Jeri Weber at 153 Siesta Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shelton at 135 Siesta Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stickrod at 254 La Fiesta Lane.

Paul Griffin at 265 La Fiesta Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Magnuson at 142 Siesta.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cokendolpher at 253 Loma Linda Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Brice Newberry at 203 La Fiesta Lane.

Sharon Cobb at 111 Siesta Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bazan at 138 Siesta Lane.

We hope all of you will be very happy here at Siesta.

WE HAVE A new Ding Dong lady here in the park. Pat Reed has decided to give the selling field a whirl. Now I'm sure she'll get around to ringing your doorbell sooner or later, but if you need something before then, give her a call at 355-3863.

WE WISH TO extend our deepest sympathies to Jo, Ronald and Rhonda Riley of 118 Siesta Lane, due to the death of their husband and father, Barton G. Riley last week.

JON, DIANE, MARTY and Christy Hoffman along with Albert, Katie, Davia and Kathie Rinne all loaded up their campers, last week and off to Del Rio, Texas they went for spring break vacation.

Upon arrival in Del Rio they made their way to the home of Stanley, Vondel, Terry and Bruce Henderson, a cousin of Alberts, where they parked and setup the campers.

Also there for the outing were Albert's folks Mr. and Mrs. A.A. Rinne of Wilson, Texas.

There was a lot of fishing and boating but the fish out smarted them most of the time. They all went on a boat trip down the Rio Grande and several trips were made across the border to Cindad Acuna, Old Mexico.

Both the Rinne's and the Hoffmans returned home loaded with beautiful, colorful pots of many sizes and many other real bargains. All in all it was a most exciting and enjoyable trip.

Increase is expected in vocational classes

High school administrators are expecting a sizable increase in registration for vocational classes next year.

After orientation lectures recently to this year's sophomores and juniors, a total of 299 sutdents indicated interest in taking vocational classes, Dr. Ken Hart said.

While Dr. Hart said he doesn't expect that many students to actually sign up, the numbers do represent an increase over the present enrollment. About 150 students are enrolled now in vocation courses, excluding production agriculture and useful homemaking.

In a preliminary survey, 39 students indicated interest in building trades; 41 in auto mechanics; 27 in ag co-op; 11 in cosmetology; 47 in ICT (industrial co-op training); 43 in DE (distributive education); 48 in COE-POE (office education); 29 in HECE (homemaking co-op training; and 14 in feedlot management.

Local residents have been invited to attend a public program and discussion of "cancer quackery" which will be held Saturday, March 27, from 9-12 a.m. at Amarillo College

Turner is medalist at tourney

Canyon's Bill Turner was named medalist for the 16-team Hereford Invitational golf tournament held during spring break.

He shot an 81 on Friday and a 71 on Saturday for the match low score of 152.

Canyon's team tied with Lubbock High for fourth place.

High winds drove all the scores up on Friday, said CHS coach B.B. Kendrick, and the team shot a 342 to place them fifth in the first round.

But on Saturday, CHS golfers scored 312—one of the best rounds they've had.

"I think we may have been lower than that one time, but this is as good a competitive round as we've had," Kendrick said. "Especially this early."

Besides Turner's 71, Jerry Allen shot a 79, Sandy Winn a 81 and Roger McNabb an 81.

Two Canyon teams will compete Friday in an 18-hole tournament in Clovis.

Metro unit has pot bust

Two persons were arrested Tuesday night at a Canyon motel by Metro agents and charged with delivery of marijuana.
Carol Jean Hawkins, 28, of Big Prairie, Ohio and Michael Wayne Campbell, 25, of Hugoton, Kans. were arrested at room 3, Cowboy Motel about 11 p.m. They were taken to Randall County Jail and were scheduled for arraignment Wednesday.

EVERY PRESCRIPTION IS A "MIRACLE" MEDICINE

When your physician writes a prescription for you, he has selected, from the many thousands of different medicines in our prescription department the exact one he judges will help you most. That is why a prescription is usually more beneficial than any over the counter medicine.

For, the most important part of any treatment is your physician's ability to diagnose the cause of the trouble. That diagnosis is an extra ingredient which makes each prescription a "Miracle" medicine.

union building, his picture was again taken.
"I know the local news media people," he said. "I tried to talk to this fellow and he refused to talk to me."
Petersen remembers an Army intelligence agent who was seen frequently at anti-war meetings. And he remembers finding letters in his mail which were already opened.
"What we did here was completely aboveboard and within the Constitutional prescriptions of free speech," he said. "It was really innocuous. All we did was try to discuss the issues in Vietnam."
Munsell feels he has more substantial evidence the FBI worked through the university to gather information on him.
"I know I was being watched," he said, " and I had the feeling my phone was bugged. I had some mail which was opened and there was no rhyme or reason for it to be."
Munsell said he was told in the early '70s by a campus security officer that the officer had been told the FBI was conducting an investigation on Munsell and that he had been instructed to "get anything on me he could."
Munsell said the security officer told him both the FBI and military intelligence had compiled dossiers on him, containing data on his activities on campus since 1968.
He said his office was broken into on occasion, posters were torn from his walls and his files were rifled.
That the FBI was, indeed, active on the university campus during the late '60s and early '70s, is indicated by file notes obtained by a student active in the war movement during that time period from the FBI recently through the federal Freedom of Information Act.
The former student wrote FBI director Clarence Kelley recently and asked for copies of all material in any file the FBI might have compiled on him.
Returned to him were two photocopied sheets of paper and a letter from Kelley explaining that portions of the entries concerning his activities had been deleted to protect the identity of FBI informants.
One item in the ex-student's file is an excerpt from a Prairie student newspaper article published Dec. 13, 1968, concerning the formation of an SDS chapter at WTSU. Other excerpts from interviews conducted by FBI agents and informants are choppy because of deletions but indicate the FBI was centering in on SDS activities on campus.
Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice president for student affairs at WTSU now and during the late '60s, confirmed this week the FBI showed an unusual interest in the campus SDS group, in a black student group, and in some professors.
He said the agents were most interested in anti-war moratorium activity on campus and in the activities of Gary Puckrein, a black student leader from New York City.
"They wanted an awful lot of information about him (Puckrein)," Carruth said.
Carruth said his office had virtually no information to give the FBI on the students.
"They had a lot more information than we did," he said. "And, one thing about the FBI — they don't share information, they collect it."
Carruth said the FBI must have collected most of its information from sources other than the university.
Bobby Hudson of Canyon, who was chief of campus security at WTSU during the '60s, said his office kept close tabs on students in the SDS on campus, but he said he was not aware of an intensified FBI effort directed toward the campus.
Hudson denied the university had any involvement with surveillance or intelligence-gathering concerning faculty members.
"We didn't have any business fooling with the faculty," he said.
Dist. Judge George Dowlen, who was Randall County district attorney during the late '60s, confirmed that the FBI was "really well acquainted with what went on down there (on the campus)."
He said FBI interest seemed to focus on the SDS chapter, but he said he was "never aware they were working on stuff down there."
Canyon Chief of Police Al Stewart, who served on the police force in the late '60s, said officers, to his knowledge, were never engaged in any surveillance activities on the campus, although they were alert to the possibilities for problems during Old South Days parades.
Registrar Donald Cates said various intelligence agencies have always asked to review student files through his office, but they are required by law to declare the purpose of their investigation is related to national security.
Cates said none of the agents have ever told him their investigations were for anything other than routine security checks for students considering jobs in security-related industries or the military.

excellent quality at 65 feet. The wells are drilled into the same aquifer from which the city is drilling, Lair said.
"If they run out of water, they will run out within a year or two of the time the city runs out," he said.
Water usage on such residences is small, Lair said, and a 300 gallon well will supply the entire area.
Thompson and City Manager Glen Metcalf both reported that City Engineer Bill McMorries advised against approving the plat. McMorries was not at the meeting.
"Looking at the development not in the short run but over the next 10, 20 even 50 years, if the planning and zoning board felt that the subdivision would ever be annexed to the city, then they made a mistake in approving the plat because of the utilities and the burden that would be placed on the residents at some future time," Metcalf said.
Mayor Manly Bryan noted that areas can be annexed involuntarily, at which case city services must be extended, or voluntarily, in which the property owners pay for extending services. It was unlikely, he said, that the area would ever be annexed involuntarily.
Lair said he would be willing to grant easements for utilities across the area, in case the city developed around the subdivision.
In tabling the consideration of the plat, the commission left unclear when the matter would be brought up again. Commissioners said they would like first to get a report on the project from McMorries and settle the procedural matter of whether to present the plat to the county commissioners court before the city acts on it.

They opened sealed bids for street seal coating and awarded the contract for 50 blocks of seal coating to High Plains Paving for a low bid of $15,979 based on a unit cost of 29 cents.
Other bids were Jake Diehl, $17,632 total or 32 cents a unit; Jay L. Mulligan, $19,560.50 total or 35.5 cents a unit and Lewis Construction, $16,530 total or 30 cents a unit.
The commissioners also passed a resolution designating the land around the sewer treatment plant as Southeast Park and approving $10,000 for construction of two baseball diamonds there. Mrs. Joseph Findley was appointed as the library's lay representative to the major resource council. They tabled a discussion of Canyon North.

don't know why," Keeling told the audience after reading the letter.
No action was taken to accept the letter of withdrawal.
School Business Manager Ronnie Wood reported to the board that the district budget is still in good shape, although the staff failed to allow enough money in a fund to pay for schools' utility bills.
The board adopted the McMillan series of books for elementary mathematics next year and an American Book Co. series for spelling in the elementary grades next year. The books were recommended for adoption by the school textbook committee.
Next board meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. April 6.

reported.
For the Panhandle region, the other major venereal disease, syphilis, ranked third among communicable diseases in the year.
Infectious hepatitis ranked second with 71 cases reported, followed by serum hepatitis, rubella, measles, meningococcal infections and brucellosis.
Brown said public law requires that many communicable diseases treated by physicians be reported to the Texas Department of Health Resources, but many physicians fail to make the reports.
"Since many physicians fail to comply with these laws, the morbidity reports are generally considered to be a 'conservative estimate' of the true disease situation in most counties," Brown said. "This is especially true of such diseases as gonorrhea and syphilis."
Brown said national health authorities estimate that only one of four cases of venereal disease is reported.
"The state usually goes along with that," he said, "but, whether it's too high or low we don't know."
An experienced worker in VD programs in the Panhandle, Brown said he believes reporting is more accurate in the area than in other areas of the nation.

Senior citizens report progress on remodelling

Canyon Senior Citizens report that progress is continuing steadily on the remodelling of their new community building (the former site of First Christian Church located at 1719 5th Avenue) and expectations are that the senior citizens will be relocating to their new facility in early May.

The Senior Citizens will meet this evening, Thursday, for their regular 6:30 supper session at the Canyon Community Center. The potluck supper will be followed with games and fellowship for all community residents aged 55 and older.

Upcoming for the Senior Citizens will be a free blood pressure testing conducted by the nursing students of West Texas State University. The testing will be conducted next Thursday, April 1, beginning at 6 p.m. previous to the weekly supper session.

Canyon Dames will be conducting a bake sale Saturday, March 27, at Cooper's Thriftway in Canyon.

Looking glass of fashions showing Saturday

"Through The Looking Glass," a review of historic fashions, will be presented for the public Saturday afternoon in the second floor lecture room of the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum.

Sponsored by Faculty Wives, Etc, the revue will feature both formal and informal attire dating as early as 1776. Interlaced with the presentation of fashions will be a film titled "American Woman" which is provided by Butterick Patterns and discusses the ways in which clothing styles are set by the moods of the people.

Fashions from the Civil War era, the Gibson Girl styles of the 1890s and the fashions of the World War I and World War II periods will be shown along with numerous other fashions from the museum's fashion collection and various private collections.

Beginning at 2:30 p.m., the revue tickets are available this week from Celia Mitchell, Frances Muir, Alta Smith, Jane Stephens and Anne Thomason.

The public fashion revue Saturday will be narrated by Mary Jane Reeves and will include the presentation of various door prizes being furnished by city merchants. A relaxer time with homemade apple pie and homemade ice cream will be included in the afternoon's festivities.

Anne Thomason is general chairman for the Faculty Wives, Etc. project with Jane Munsell in charge of decorations and Jane Wheeler handling publicity.

The museum's fashion collection was screened by Jackie Wilson and Francis Muir for inclusion in the revue. Historic apparel from private collections will also be shown including items from the collection of Mrs. Robert O'Keefe, costume mistress for Theatre Amarillo (formerly Amarillo Little Theatre), and from Mrs. Irving Alexander of Alexander's Fashions.

Modeling their own heirloom fashions will be Mrs. Mario Coleman and Mrs. Robert Sawvell along with Faculty Wives' members who are serving on the hospitality committee.

Other models for the revue will include Mrs. Coleman's daughter, Terri, Frances Muir, Janet Nelson, Helen Freidell, Diane Crossland, Carolyn Blackburn, Jeane Miller and Alta Smith.

Memorial rites conducted for widow of Dr. J.A. Hill

Goldie Kelton Savage Hill, 91, a resident of The Wesleyan Home died Sunday in Georgetown, Texas.

Mrs. Hill was born in Murfreesboro, Tennessee on September 19, 1884 and was the only surviving member of the ten children of John William Hobson and Eliza Burnley Smith Hobson. The children moved to Denton County, Texas following the death of their parents in 1892.

Mrs. Hill was the wife of F.E. Savage who served as Principal of an Amarillo School, Superintendent of the Floydada Public Schools and Superintendent of the Tulia Public Schools prior to becoming a professor at West Texas State University in 1919 where he taught under the leadership of President J.A. Hill and was a close friend and associate.

Surviving children of this marriage are Mrs. R. William Brown of Wheeler, Texas; F.W. Savage of Austin, Texas and Dr. Donald E. Savage of Berkeley, California.

Following the death of F.E. Savage in 1952, Mrs. Hill was married to Dr. Joseph A. Hill, President Emeritus, retired, of West Texas State University who preceded her in death at the Wesleyan Home on June 26, 1973. Survivors include J. Davis Hill of Austin, Texas; Mrs. Marion Hill of Borger, Texas; Joe F. Hill of Newport Beach, California.

Other survivors include 20 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were held Tuesday in Canyon, Texas under the direction of Schooler-Gordon Funeral Home of Canyon and Davis Funeral Home in Georgetown, Texas. Interment was in the Savage family plot at Dreamland Cemetery in Canyon.

Dr. Joe Findley of West Texas State University, former pastor of the First Christian Church in Canyon, Dr. Wayne Reynolds, Administrator of the Wesleyan Home in Georgetown and Rev. Terry White of the First Christian Church in Canyon conducted the service.

Active pallbearers were: Milton Morris, W.A. Branum, Meredith Warren, Jack Edmondson, and Ted Reid all of Canyon and Lewis E. Shirley of Amarillo.

Honorary pallbearers included: Marion Higdon, Dr. Mitchel W. Jones, Dr. James Cornette, Dr. J.L. Russell, Virgil Henson, Buddy Taylor and Dr. Irby Carruth, all of Canyon and Dr. E.W. Cabe of Austin.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Wesleyan Home Residents' Fund at Georgetown, Texas; The Opportunity Plan of West Texas State University or to a favorite charity.

The early 1800's set the period dress shown by Mrs. Jeane Miller as she tries out a Concord buggy.

"These are the sorghums I'd plant if I farmed in this area."
Jim Higdon
AGRONOMY SERVICE DIRECTOR
James Matthew Higdon is a professional agronomist with 16 years of intensive experience in growing hybrid corn and sorghum in the South west. His full time responsibility is to consult with farmers about their grains and silage growing problems.
"Drouth, disease, insects, wind storms . . . taking everything into account that can plague a crop in this area, these are the sorghums I'd go with."
It's my job to know which are the best varieties for each locale in the states of Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico. For the last five years I've had Crop Information Centers, Standard Comparison Tests and Uniform Strip Tests in this immediate area. In these carefully controlled tests, I've evaluated most of the sorghum varieties a farmer might consider planting. I've had the same headaches and frustrations you've had. My plantings have suffered the same weather conditions, epidemics and infestations yours have.
Based on these tests, there is no doubt in my mind what I'd plant in 1976 if I farmed hereabouts.
8311 is a champion producer of high test weight, yellow endosperm grain. Pioneer introduced this golden bronze hybrid three years ago and it's been setting yield records in this area ever since. One reason is its ability to yield in the face of too wet or too dry weather, insects or disease. Another reason for the high yields is that 8311 tends to adjust its maturity to the growing season in a particular area. Whatever else you plant . . . put in some 8311.
8501
An outstanding new yellow endosperm hybrid with about the same maturity as 846. This hybrid has a superior yield record. The plant has excellent roots and stalks. Heads exsert well above the flag leaf and are uniform in height. Pioneer brand 8501 has good tolerance to smut, MDMV, downy mildew and greenbugs. It performs well under stress and has semi-open heads that add to its good appearance.
A WORD ABOUT GREENBUGS
Tolerance to both greenbugs and maize dwarf mosaic plus high yield potential give these two sorghum varieties an economically significant advantage that you'll want to consider for your grain sorghum crop in 1976.
Performance of seeds or the crop produced therefrom may be adversely affected by factors beyond our control including environmental conditions, insects and diseases. The limitation of warranty and remedy attached to each bag of Pioneer brand seed is a part of the terms and conditions of the sale thereof.

Gene Howe

Thanks to TV, just watch my language

By KAROLYN FARMER

EVER SINCE I watched the TV game show "Jeopardy" and learned how to pronounce "pot-pourri," I've gradually been expanding my self-confidence.

Nothing was more inhibiting or damaging to my ego than the cold stares or unstiffled snickers as I casually threw "pot-poury" into the conversation.

But thanks to the miracle of television, my vocabulary has been refined, I've discovered a new deodorant, and I'm "ready for anything!"

There's just one problem: I can't find anyone who will discuss the subject with me, or is even willing to admit they have one.

However, to prove I know what I'm talking about, let me make one thing perfectly clear: We definitely have a lot of potpourri in the Gene Howe area!

MRS. STEVE (GENEVA) Ray has unofficially been named "Bravest Mother of the Week." Since Steve had to stay home to "mind the store," Geneva took their four sons, Steve, Jr., Donnie, Larry and Michael, along with Kent Davis, to the ski slopes of New Mexico.

The group spent several days last week at the Sierra Blanca Resort near Ruidoso. Michael had prepared for the trip by taking skiing lessons at Amarillo College this winter.

Michael also had the only accident of the trip, when he ran into a tree and broke off the tip of his ski.

BETH AND DARRELL Shew, Tiffany and Jarrod took advantage of the school holiday to get away for a few days. The Shews went to Springfield, Colo. for a visit with Beth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Smith.

BILL AND WILMA Hall and their family are looking forward to spending lots of time at their new "summer home" on the shores of Lake Meredith.

The Halls recently bought a lot, complete with trailer, at Lake Meredith Harbor. Next in their plans is to acquire a boat.

Stan Hall and Mike Johnson spent part of last week's Spring Break at the lake home. The boys, both students at CHS, enjoyed riding the paddle boats and exploring the area.

March is birthday month for two members of the Hall family. Johnny celebrated his twentieth birthday on March 9th, and Mary was 18 on March 23rd.

Wilma says they're planning a special family dinner just as soon as she can get everybody together at one time.

KELLI CAMPBELL WAS one of the many area young people who competed in the recent UIL Music Contests held at WT. Kelli, who became famous for her performance of "Muleskinner Blues" in last year's 6th Grade Choir program, proved her versatility during the contest.

Singing "Tulo Sai" in Italian, Kelli received a Superior Rating in the Class I Division. She was the only seventh grader in the competition to achieve this distinction.

Kelli is in Mr. Travis Angel's 7th Grade choir at CJHS, and is the daughter of Mrs. Darlene Campbell.

RUNNERS-UP FOR the "Brave Mother" Award go to Pat Meier and Pat Seth. Both ladies, along with their children, Tim and Chris Seth and Don and Cassie Meier, went to Red River last Wednesday.

Pat Seth was the only member of the group who didn't take to the slopes — they couldn't afford to have a "disabled" driver.

Cassie Meier, who broke her leg in a skiing accident in December, has completely recovered, and was the most excited skiier in the bunch.

One of the highlights of the trip for both the children and their mothers was meeting up with the Bicentennial Wagon Train while on their way to Red River.

The wagon train originated in Los Angeles and is following the early-day trails to Valley Forge, Pa., averaging 20 miles a day.

The Seths and Meiers also saw the wagon train on their return trip, and stopped to visit with the modern "pioneers."

* * *

BILL AND PAT Seth's family has doubled, for this week anyway. Bill D. is back home from Tech for his spring break. Pat's niece, Carla Dorsey, is also spending the week here during her school vacation.

Carla is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dorsey of Lubbock. The Dorseys will be joining the Seths this weekend for some fishing, etc., at their Lake Meredith trailer home.

DUB AUSTIN CELEBRATED his 9th birthday on March 22nd. Several friends and his sister, Denise, joined Dub for a birthday-bowling party last Sunday.

Signaling the arrival of spring, the most popular birthday gifts were yo-yo's and kites. Dub also received a hoped-for watch from his parents, Becky and Bill Stephens.

LINDA FORD, JANA and Amy spent part of their vacation time last week visiting with their many relatives who live in Vernon.

Meanwhile, Tommy and their son, Corey, got in lots of fishing at Toledo Bend in Louisiana. Earnest Eads, also a Lake Tanglewood resident, joined the Ford men on their fishing trip. In spite of the constant rains, the fishing trip was a big success — Linda says they brought back an ice chest full of fillets.

JIMMY MORRISON IS in High Plains Hospital as the result of an unusual accident last Saturday. Jimmy and Leroy Gross were racing their horses near Lamount Street and Jimmy's horse was on a collision course with a large pole.

The horse suddenly veered to one side and threw Jimmy onto the pole. Jimmy's leg was broken and he underwent surgery on Sunday, as two metal plates were placed in his leg.

Jimmy's wife, Sue and their son, Jay, are hoping he'll be able to come home from the hospital by the end of this week.

JACKIE AND GEORGE Jobe and Shelley enjoyed a restful vacation last week. Shelley spent several days visiting relatives in Fort Worth, while her parents got in some fishing. George is especially proud of the five pound trout he caught; Jackie's biggest catch was a three-pound red fish.

Besides visiting relatives in Harlingen and Port Mansfield, the Jobes also went to Padre Island. Included in their trip were visits to Mexico for some shopping and sight-seeing.

PACK 130s CUB Scouts were among the 500 boys who participated in the Scout Circus last Saturday. Forty-five Scout Units were represented in the circus at the Fairgrounds Coliseum in Amarillo.

The boys of Pack 130 carried their pack flag in the impressive Grand Entry and the singing of the National Anthem.

During the two performances of the day, the Gene Howe boys presented several stunts, including a nail driving contest, an exhibition of the rocker-tilt game and leap-frog.

Seventeen boys from Pack 130 took part in the afternoon performance, with 27 boys performing in the evening event.

Along with the many displays of physical activity by the other Scouts, the Kwahadi Indians of Troop 80 performed several Indian dances.

The Shriner Band provided the circus music and the Drum Corps from Amarillo High School played cadence as the boys marched at the beginning and end of the circus.

Shannon Edwards was one of the boys of Boy Scout Troop 112 who entertained the large crowd on hand. Shannon was elaborately dressed as a rodeo clown and performed his famous "drop the pants" trick.

Joining together for the Grand Finale, all the Scouts formed the outline of the United States. In the center were the Kwahadi Indians, holding the American flag. Flashlights shone on the flag as everyone joined in singing "God Bless America."

The Scouts who sold at least 40 tickets to the circus were eligible for the prize drawings during the evening performance. Shawn Bartz of Pack 130 was one of those whose name was drawn.

Gene Howe's own Joe Wait served as Chairman of the successful and much enjoyed Scout Circus.

BECKY ROTH WAS in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo for several days last week. Becky quickly recovered from her surgery and is back in school this week. She is in Pat Stevens' second grade class at Gene Howe.

All the girls in Larry Roth's family are definitely Gene Howe fans. Lori is in Mrs. Woodard's third grade class. And Nancy is one of the second grade teachers at the school.

SHERRIE AND JAY Merritt, Melissa and Chad were among the unlucky ones on the ski slopes this past weekend. The Merritts arrived at Red River, N.M. on Friday, and during their last run of the day, Chad fell and broke his left leg.

After a fast trip to the hospital in Taos, they discovered that both bones in Chad's leg were broken. The leg was set in a cast, and Chad will be maneuvering with the aid of crutches for several more weeks.

MELISSA MERRITT COMPETED with the gymnastic team from Nard's in Amarillo during a recent meet at the Maverick Club. Melissa, who has only been taking gymnastics for a little over a year, placed well against 32 other girls in her division.

Melissa received 5th place in the trampoline event and 11th in the floor exercises.

She also took part in a January meet in Midland, placing 5th in the vault and 4th in parallel bars.

SHARON AND EVERETT Howard, Stacy, Mary Mack, Heather and April took an enjoyable vacation trip last week to Arkansas. The Howards stayed with their former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Smith, who have retired in Mountainburg, Ark. on top of the Boston Mountains.

Everett's favorite part of the trip was the fishing, while Sharon and the girls did some shopping at a fabulous new shopping center in nearby Fort Smith.

The Howards also stopped in Oklahoma City to visit Sharon's cousin, Cindy Packard, her husband, Dan, and their daughter, Holly. Cindy and Holly are now in Amarillo for a two-week stay with Cindy's parents.

* * *

MRS. RODNEY (JANICE) Gresham, Robin, Missy and Wendy left Daddy at home last week and drove to Hartzel, Colo. They spent several days with Janice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Hazel.

While returning home, Janice and the girls ran into a dust storm near Pueblo, Colo. Janice says the storm was so bad that they had to return to Hartzel and try it again later.

Missy Gresham has also joined the recent rash of broken bone sufferers. Missy had a fall on Sunday evening while riding her motorcycle and broke a bone in her right arm.

JUDY AND LEROY Kitten, Allison, Lori, Melany and Wendy left right after school was out for spring break for a trip to Houston. The main purpose for the trip was further asthma testing for Melany at the McGovern Allergy Clinic.

The Kittens, who are owners of Sundown Acres Greenhouse, visited several greenhouses in the Houston area and brought back many beautiful plants for their own customers.

The Kitten girls especially enjoyed ice skating at the Galleria Shopping Center in Houston.

MRS. JIM (BARBARA) Melton and Mrs. Ray Love, along with another sister, Mrs. Donnie Roberts and their mother, Mrs. Oneta Pearson of Amarillo drove to Wichita Falls to visit their sister, Louise Pearson, who is hospitalized there.

DONNA AND LARRY Cunningham, Mike and Tim all enjoyed Donna's birthday present last weekend. Donna had requested a ski trip, so the family spent her special day — Sunday — on the slopes at Santa Fe.

Donna and the boys also spent part of the spring break visiting friends in their former home "city" of Mannford, Oklahoma.

CHRIS STOKES, THE son of Yvonda and Larry, went to Spearman during his school vacation. Chris stayed with Yvonda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pipkin, and spent most of his spare time chasing mice and rabbits on their farm.

He was especially proud of the money ($1) that he earned helping his grandfather drive the tractor.

Yvonda, Larry and their daughter, Krystal, went to Spearman on Friday and then joined other members of their family in Perryton for the Saturday wedding of Yvonda's cousin.

LAMOUNT DRIVE BAPTIST Church's congregation was treated to some special music during last Sunday evening's services. Royal Brantley, Robert Byrd, Darrell Chandler and Len Schmidt made up the musical quartet.

The front pew of the sanctuary was filled with several of the boys' fellow classmates from CHS.

* * *

MRS. LLOYD (BARBARA) Wood was in the hospital for a short stay last week. Barbara says the effects of the anesthetic were much worse than the pain from the removal of three wisdom teeth.

SHANNON STUBBLEFIELD, THE daughter of Lyman and Judy, had an unusual vacation last week. Shannon, who is in Johnnie Gordon's third grade class at Gene Howe, visited with her old classmates at Amarillo Christian School.

Her mother explained that the Montessori program at the school is run on a one-to-one basis, and Shannon assisted in "teaching" as some of the students read to her, etc.

* * *

SHIRLEY AND TERRY Cates and their son, Troy, made the most of Troy's school vacation. The Cates drove to California where they spent two days touring Disneyland.

Other highlights of the trip were visiting the San Diego Zoo and the Grand Canyon.

The visit to California was the first for Troy, who is in Rose Mary Ramaekers' 4th grade class at Gene Howe.

TROYCE MULHERIN IS looking forward to seeing lots of you at her Community Education crafts class during the next four weeks.

The class will be held at Gene Howe beginning at 7:00 on Thursday evenings. Troyce and her students will be making all kinds of goodies, including special decorations for Easter.

Some of the things Troyce has planned include panoramic (sugar) eggs and Easter party favors.

The fee for the course is $5. And if you miss the first one, please contact Troyce at 352-6053 to see about catching up for the next ones.

* * *

MRS. JOE (SANDRA) Wait, Kevin and Heather went to Kerrville last week to visit with both Sandra's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Perlowski, and Joe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wait.

Sandra and the children also took off one day to visit the zoo in San Antonio during their vacation.

SHEILA HICKS SPENT last weekend with her grandparents, Bill and Polly SoRelle, in Plainview. Mr. and Mrs. SoRelle are the parents of Phyllis Hicks.

RAYDELL AND DONNIE Palmer, Shonda and Shane, stopped to visit relatives in Denton and Henderson last week before driving on to Alexandria, Louisiana.

Unfortunately, Raydell came down with the flu and was "deathly" sick during most of the trip.

GEORGIA AND LEE Sorrells, Lee Ann and Kevin, made a flying trip to Truth or Consequences, N.M. over the weekend to visit Georgia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Derby.

The Sorrells, who are relative newcomers to the Gene Howe area, are preparing for another move as soon as they sell their home on Olympia.

Lee will be joining the Segrest Feed Company, which his father co-founded in Slocomb, Alabama.

Georgia, who has served on the Gene Howe PTA Executive Committee this year, says they've really grown to love the area and especially the people. However, they're all looking forward to Lee's new business opportunity.

CHARLES AND REGINA Pender and their family were victims of a tragic and devastating fire to their home last Friday. The fire completely destroyed the contents and their home, which is located in Mescalero Park.

The Penders are presently staying with their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morgan.

I know many of you will want to help the Penders replace their home and personal belongings. Trust funds have been set up at both the Western National Bank and the Tascosa National Bank in Amarillo for anyone wanting to donate.

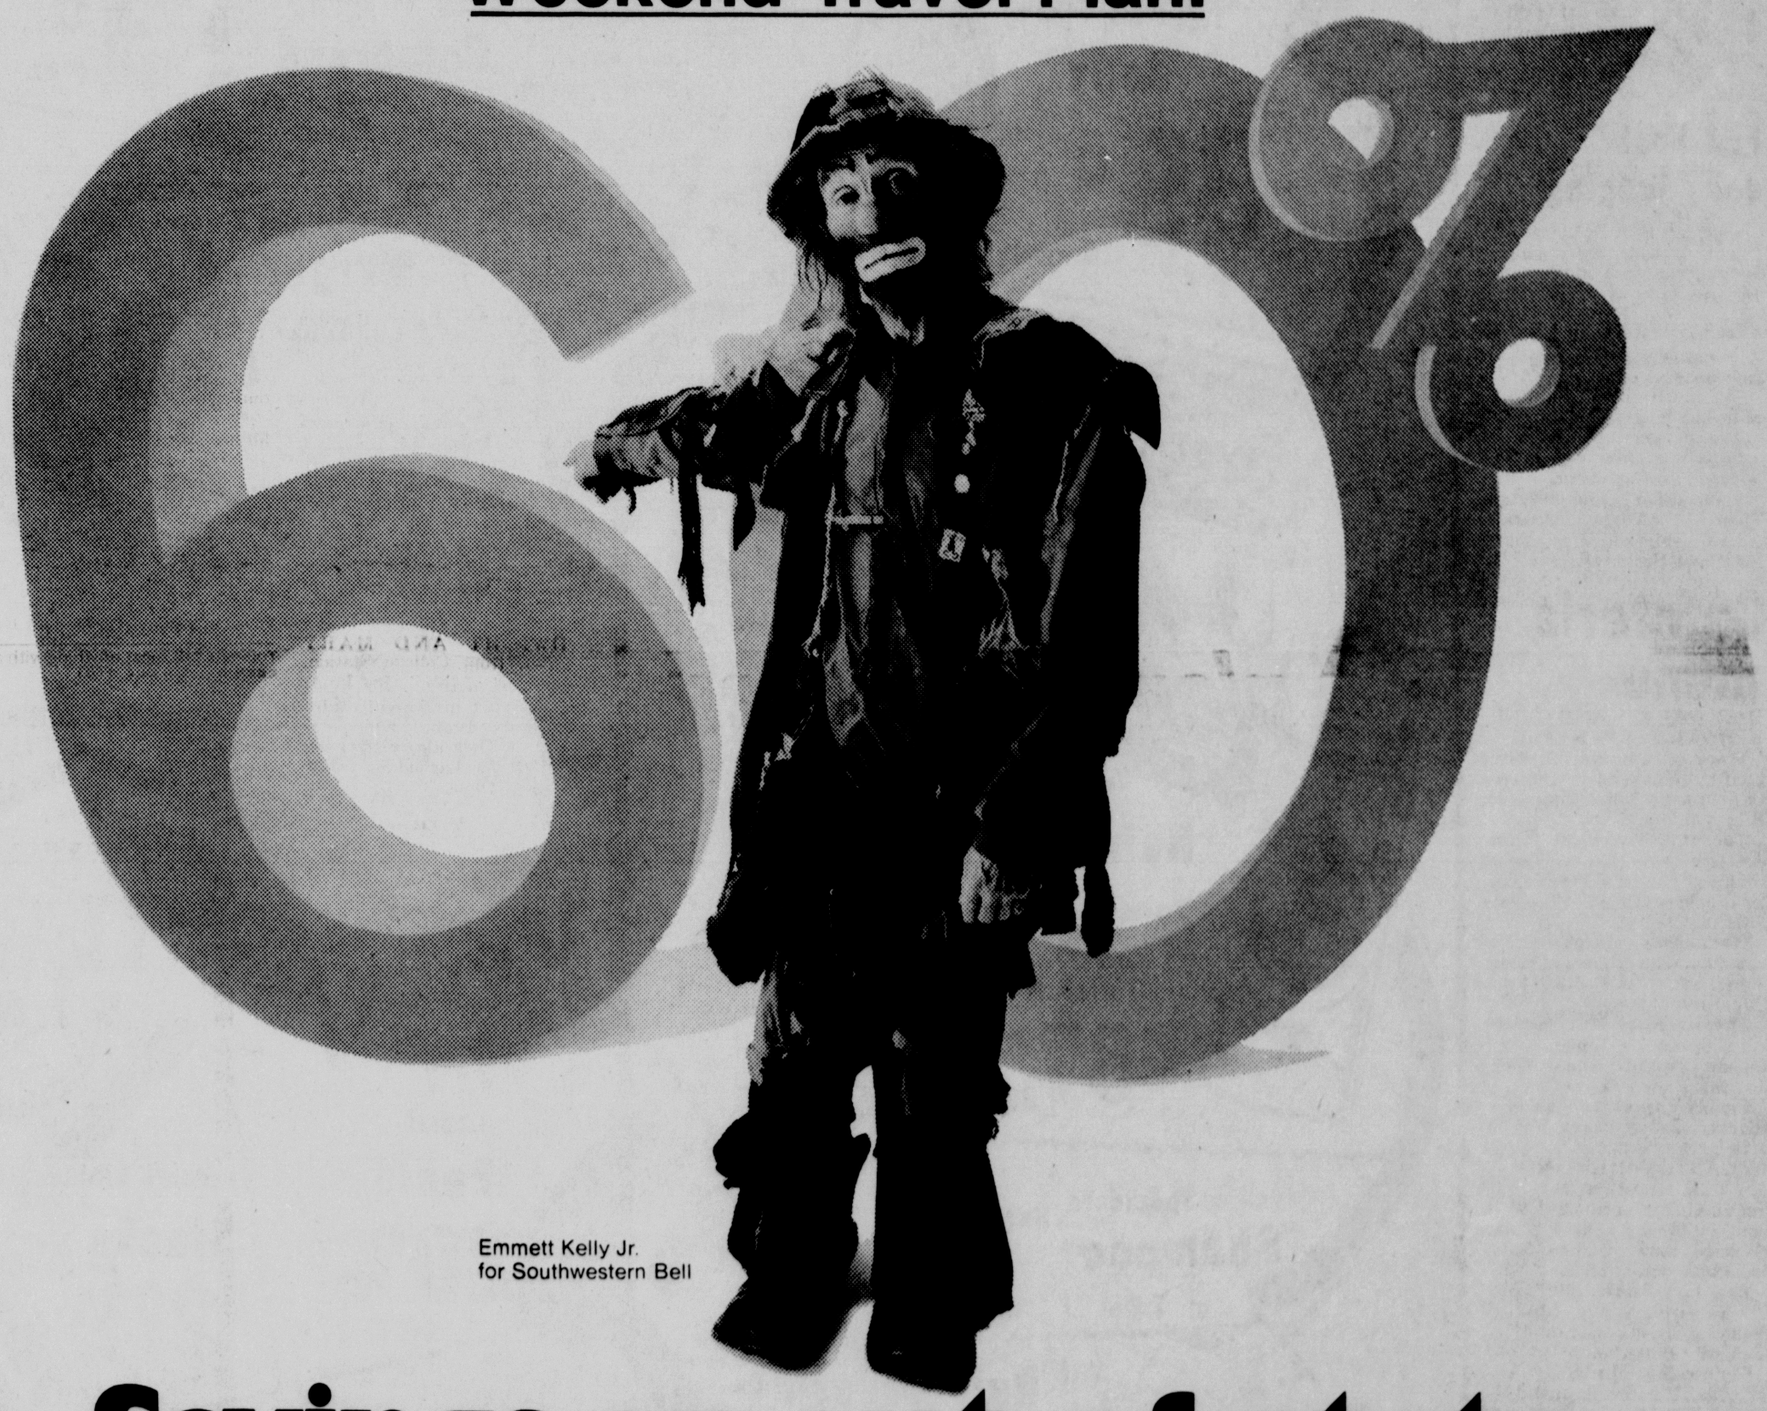

A shower for the Pender family was held on Tuesday evening at the Morgan's home. A food donation drive is planned soon by the students and teachers at Gene Howe.

Besides the parents, the Pender family also includes six children: the girls are 16, 5, and 6 months; the boys are 11 and 10 years old.

Please check my column in next week's paper for more details on what you can do to help.

Little League meets tonight

Parents or prospective Little League players will meet tonight at 7:30 at the WTSU fieldhouse. All youngsters 8-12 who intend to play this season must sign up, even if they played last year.

Policemen are hired

Two new policemen have joined the Canyon police department this week.

They are Glen A. Stocker and James R. Relaford.

Stocker, 21, is a Canyon High School graduate and has attended West Texas State University, majoring in criminal justice. Recently discharged from the Army, he served as an infantry sergeant.

Relaford, 23, is also recently discharged from the Army, where he served as a military policeman. A native of Midland, he is also attending WTSU, majoring in criminal justice.

Both new patrolmen will enter Police Academy on March 29.

FFA hosts dairy judging

Canyon FFA will host a Panhandle-wide dairy judging contest Saturday at the Louis Hinders dairy farm east of the city.

Students from throughout the area have been invited to participate.

In addition, a national collegiate judging contest for all non-land grant universities, colleges and junior colleges will be held at the same time.

Competition begins at 9 a.m. There will be four judging classes for Holsteins and three classes for Brown Swiss cows.

Rock-a-thon raises funds for offering

Eight junior high youths of the First Presbyterian Church conducted a weekend rock-a-thon to raise funds for the One Great Hour of Sharing offering to alleviate hunger in the world.

The rock-a-thon participants manned rocking chairs for a period of 17½ hours to earn pledge money for the special offering.

The rocking group named Pam Cathey and Peter Shelly in a tie as the hungriest pair; selected Mary Mitchell as the sleepiest rocker; adjudged that Bill Davis was the funniest; Nancy Glazener the most wide awake participant; Peter Shelly as the wiggliest rocker; Liz Wheeler as the most vigorous participant; Pam Cathey and Shavawn Evans tied as the laziest rockers and Anne Wheeler was the noisiest.

Annual fellowship dinner for the West Texas State Bible Chair will be held Friday evening, March 26, at the East Dining Hall on campus.
